

Inclusive Youth Leadership Camp

The idea of inclusion demands putting an end to any form of discrimination, abuse, or humiliation based explicitly on ethnic differences. It extends to developing a constructive and cooperative interaction between people of different ethnicities. Only by complying with the foundations of peace and stability, we can achieve the stable and prosperous future. Understanding and accepting the differences, respecting the values, and living by the notion of love for all hatred for none, is the only way forward. The Youth Camp will be a stepping stone to achieve larger goal of peaceful and progressive Pakistan, where everyone have right to spend the life as per their belief.

The Objectives of the Camp

- To give exposure for the role and functioning of political institution relevant to policy and governance.
- To promote harmony, tolerance, coexistence, and respect among participants
- To provide an intellectual platform for discussion through exchange of ideas and dialogues.
- To promote interfaith harmony and cultural diversity
- To provide a platform for youth to exchange unique ideas
- To build a bond of strong national unity and Islamic brotherhood

We are aiming to plan the following main activities to engage youth during this camp

Day One (October 14th Thursday)
Time	Activity
02:00 PM	Inaugural Session (Riphah Institute of Public Policy, ETB Campus)
03:00 PM	Visit to Parliament Session on the significance and working of Parliament
07:00 PM	Interactive session with parliamentarians leading to Executive Dinner
Day Two (October 15th Friday)
11:00 AM	Visit to Foreign Office Briefing on Conflict & Peace Stability
02:30 PM	Visit to Riphah Institute of Public Policy Seminar on Policy, Ethics and future Leadership
04:00 PM	Visit to IRI, Faisal Masjid Dialogue Peace, Harmony and National Development
07:00 PM	Dinner With Kashmir Activists
Day Three (October 16th Friday)
01:00 PM	Visit to Islamabad Press Club Briefing on Media Reforms
04:00 PM	Session at Kashmir House
05:30 PM	Closing Ceremony